

We are SOBAJIMA can Company, a tin can maker from Aichi, Japan.

Sobajima can Company started in 1906.(Meiji 39)

Back then, we manufactured tinplate equipment used to hatch silkworms.

During World War II, we made hardtack tin cans and airplane parts for the army.

After the war, we produced metal gift tin cans for seasonal gift-giving.

Today, we make tin cans for everything from medicine to sweets, keeping our craft alive for over 120 years.

For generations, we have carefully protected people's precious feelings and memories.

What only we can do is to protect what is most precious to you.

The prayers for the safe return of those heading to war,

The desire to express love and gratitude to those we cherish,

The gentle wish to hold our own treasures close to our hearts— Through every changing era, we continue to craft the vessels that carry these timeless, precious feelings.

Guided by our vision, "Be a person trusted with treasures", we want to create a happier world by using our tin cans to bring truly precious things into people's lives.
